

MURDERERS FAIL IN THEIR PETITION

Unless favorable action be taken by the state board of pardons, the last hope of Harry Thorne and Thomas Riley, convicted murderers of George Fassell, an East Fourth South street grocer, of escaping the executioner has gone.

The state supreme court yesterday denied the petition of Thorne for a rehearing of his second appeal to the tribunal from the judgment of the lower court. The remittitur to the district court was sent down yesterday in the Thorne case and the same action will be taken today in the Riley case, after which both men will be resubmitted in the district court.

The crime for which both were convicted, Thorne after having had two trials, occurred early in the evening of March 24, 1910. Masked as highwaymen, the men entered the grocery store of George Fassell, in Salt Lake, and in the hold-up Fassell was shot and killed.

Both boys have previously elected execution by shooting, and it is not expected that either will change in the manner of death to be selected when brought in for final sentence.

TAKE IT IN TIME.

Just as Scores of Ogden People Have.

Waiting doesn't pay. If you neglect kidney backache, urinary troubles often follow. Doan's Kidney Pills are for kidney backache, and for other kidney ills. Ogden citizens endorse them.

Mrs. Thomas H. Reeder, 832 Twenty-Second St., Ogden, Utah, says: "The public statement I gave in 1906 and 1907 regarding Doan's Kidney Pills were correct in every detail. I used Doan's Kidney Pills myself and they have been taken by other persons in my home, always bringing relief from pain and soreness in the back and other symptoms of kidney complaint. We keep Doan's Kidney Pills in the house and they have saved us many a doctor bill. I am glad to recommend this remedy to all sufferers from kidney complaint."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

RAILROAD BUSINESS IS REPORTED GOOD

J. G. Lowe, traveling passenger agent of the Western Pacific, and General Passenger Agent E. L. Lomax, of Omaha, were in Ogden yesterday conferring with Local Agent Frank Fouts to general traffic matters, stating that the transcontinental roads are enjoying an unprecedented amount of business at the present time and that there seems to be nothing in sight that can interfere with its continuation.

They attribute the favorable conditions which exist to good crops everywhere, good markets, improved transportation facilities, reasonable rates and general prosperity throughout the country, despite the so-called "high cost of living."

According to the visitors, the election bugbear is not materializing the way that it has done in past campaigns and it is questionable if the presidential election will prove a menace in any way this year.
